PERSONAL .- Cora de Wilhorst, who has been ill for a short time, in New York, is expected to arrive in the city this morning, and will appear in opera some time during the week.

Piccolomini has been re-engaged by Manager Ullman for six months, and will appear in opera in the West some time in May.

ESICSSON'S CALORIC ENGINE AND THE AMESI-CAN LEGION, K. G. C .- At twelve o'clock last night, while this paper was being printed off on its first side, the American Legion, K. G. C., holding its first ball at the Melodeon, (onehalf square distant,) during an interim visited the Daily Press rooms for the purpose of witnessing the "Great Erlesson," which, it is well known, propels our Lightning Cylinder Press. The company is composed of material of high order. The poet of the West is among the number. We must not be too modest to acknowledge the true compliment paid us. Every one subscribed for the Daily Press. May Heaven bless every body, particularly the ladies of the American Legion, K. G. C.!

BURGLARY IN WADE STREET .- A house in Wade street, occupied by a man named Jere mish Buckley, was entered night before last and robbed of about $40 worth of silver plate, and $50 or $60 worth of wearing apparel.

A MAN named James Thompson was arrested vesterday and lodged in the Ninth-street Station-house, upon the charge of having stolen a pair of 'pants from Jacob Conrad. He will answer the charge before Judge Pruden to-day.

THE regular weekly meeting of the Tenth Ward Club took place last night at the German Institute. Hassaurek and Meyers spoke to the assemblage in German, and considerable enthusiasm was manifested.

UNITED STATES COURTS .- F. G. King & Co. of Philadelphia, yesterday brought suitagainst Geo. Cooper & Co., dry goods merchants, on Pearl street, in Chancery, for the purpose of setting aside an assignment, which was made by defendants to Judge E. Woodruff, and asking for a distribution of the proceeds of a sale of their effects in the hands of the assignee.

A PAIR of horses attached to a country wagon, ran away, on the corner of Barr and Mound streets, yesterday afternoon, and broke the vehicle almost to atoms. They were returned to the owner, who, with a philosophy which was somewhat astounding, was found quietly drinking a glass of beer, at a house near Fifth street, and seemed angry that they had not been allowed to run on.

ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO KILL .- Henry Schroever, who was committed to Jail a short time ago in default of bail to await a trial for burglary, is now lying at the Hospital, quite ill from the effects of an assault alleged to have been committed by F. Sandere, B. Winthrop and L. Bich. Justice Ernst, of Millereck, yesterday committed these persons to the County Jail, to await their trial upon the charge of assault with intent to kill.

INQUEST ON THE JACOB STRADER .- Coroner Carey was yesterday called upon to hold an inquest upon the body of a man named Elias Cunningham, who died night before last while on his way to this city, on board the Jacob Strader. He was itl when he went on board the boat, most probably from the effect of dissipation. A verdict was rendered of death by some disease unknown to the Jury. He, it is said, leaves a wife and two children in Louis-

FALL OF BARLEY .- The two and a half-story brick building situated opposite the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Railroad Depot, and cooupied by Messrs. Stewart, Anger & Co. as a produce and grain warehouse, fell down yesterday morning about seven and a half o'clock. Fortunately no one was in the building at the time. The cause of the accident was the poor construction of the building, and the immense amount of grain stored therein. COMMON PLEAS.

Before the jury were called in from their room, Judge Carrer said. In a government like ours that ham have be rendered powerless by the oclones of the international processing of the court. As a Judge, or rather as an individual, I am moralir convinced, deeply so, that in this case there has been tampering with the witnesses—that the parties of the court, and an international point of view in the convention of the court of the convention of the convention of the court of the convention of the convention of the court of the convention of the commenced—Hastin Men. So the witness stand was gone, and could not stuce be found by the whole police force of the city, nor could the other three. Order that the Prosecuting Attorney will understand that he latter the fact of the court of Judge Spooner makes the closing argument for the prisoner, and Mr. Gaines closes for the State.

POLICE COURT.-George Ryan, an ex-editor of a London journal, was again before the Potice Court, for provoking a breach, or rather two breaches of the peace. He was held in $100 bail in each case for his appearance this morning.

Samuel and Bridget Campbell, a couple who reside near the canal, on Elm street, were brought before Judge Pruden for disorderly conduct. They quarreled, as most married couples sometimes do; but unfortunately this one disturbed the neighborhood, and for the purpose of teaching them to philosophically bear with their woes, they were strested, and the male fined $8 and costs.

Three persons-Joseph Corsay, Charles Caros, and Joseph Gooker-were charged with having, in market, picked the pocket of a woman, and were held in $400 bonds each for their appearance on Friday.

A fellow named Morris was sentenced to the City Prison for thirty days for raising an ax and threatening to strike with it an old lady; and for having assaulted an unoffending German, to five days in the County Jail.

An individual named Owen, who had been arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct, was discharged, but on leaving the Court-room, the tendency of his nature to the belligerent manifested itself, and he was re-arrested, and sent to the City Prison to learn to be more circumspect in his conduct, by a ten days' association with the inmates of that establishment.

BOARD OF CITY IMPROVEMENTS .- The Board of City Improvements at their session yesterday awarded the following contracts:

To Macadamize Price street, from Liberty to Boal streets, to John Dorey ; to bewider Melindy street, from Main to Clay streets, to Bensamin Barton; to pave the sidewalks on East Plum street, from Stark street to Mohawk Bridge, to Isaac Riner; to pave the sidewalks on Hammond street, to Jetson Bainbridge; to pave with limestone Hemmelgarn's alley, from Hunt street to Union alley, to R. E. Smith.

The Clerk was directed to transmit to Council the following ordinances: To bowlder Grant street, from Elm to Plum; to bowlder Bent alley, from Melanchton to Wade streets; to pave with limestone Kemble street, west of Harriet; to pave the sidewalks on Perry street. The following resolutions were adopted: To authorize the Commissioner to clean the culverts from Hamilton Road to Mohawk Bridge, and Franklin and Sycamore streets. The Commissioner was authorized to repair

Western row, from Findley to York streets. The expense of repairing accepted streets for the last week was as follows: Western Disthe fall, The house itself is a perfect wreck. triet, $22; Eastern District, $18 75.

AMUSEMENTS.

WOOD'S THEATER .- The Wallers are still drawing good houses to the above establishment. To-night they appear as "Master Walter" and as "Julia" in the celebrated play of varied attractions, of which we will speak more his Creator designed him. at length hereafter.

NATIONAL THEATER,-To-night Miss Vandenhoff appears at the Old Drury as "Lady Macbeth." She is quite a clever actress, and as the ambitious wife of the "Thane of Cawdor," will, we doubt not, entertain her hearers to the top of their bent. The afterpiece is the laughable Ivish farce of Puddy Miles' Boy.

PIKE'S OPERA HOUSE,-This magnifient temple was more than filled last night, to hear Norma-we say more than filled, for there were about three hundred more persons present than seats to accommodate them. Parodi sang her music with spirit and effect. Madame Strakosch was in excellent voice, and a perfect storm of applause and enthusiasm was produced by the rendition of the famous duett. "Hear me, Norma," by these two artists. The Opera was dressed in excellent taste, and will draw again a full house, for "Casta Diva," as sung by Parodi, is worth the whole price of admission, while her acting throughout the part contains in itself sufficient attraction to draw to its next representation all who witnessed it last night. This evening, it will be remembered, the whole troups appear in concert, and on Saturday give a matinee, at two o'clock.

LUMBERMEN'S EXCHANGE. - The adjourned meeting of the gentlemen connected with the recent movement for establishing a Lumbermen's Exchange took place yesterday, at the Mechanics' Institute, at two o'clock, Philip Hinkle, Esq., in the chair. This meeting was assembled for the purpose of receiving the report of the committee appointed for preparing by-laws, and reporting the names of officers for the government of the association. Only a few persons attended. The report went dead against the necessity of such an organization, and counseled an immediate dissolution. Here

In the opinion of your committee the object sought to be accomplished by this association sought to be accomplished by this association can be more successfully arrived at by a union of the members of the organization with the Mechanic's and Manufacturers' Exchange, recently organized in this city; and they would respectfully offer the following resolution for your adoption, viz:

Resolved, That it is inexpedient to continue the Lumbermen's Exchange, and that we hereby dissolve our connection as a separate organization, and recommend all persons engaged in the lumber business to become members of the Mechanics' and Manufacturers' Exchange.

[Signed,] change.

[Signed,]
JOHN W. GREEN,
FRED. RAMMELSBURG,
P. MILLER,
R. M. WHITE.

The advice of the committee was immediately dopted, and the meeting broke up. As we were leaving, one of the gentlemen-rather a large-proportioned specimen of the Bimana order-said to us: "Don't fail to represent the meeting as 'large and respectable;' for, you see, I am large and the rest are respectable." [A laugh.]

MECHANICS' AND MANUFACTURERS' Ex-CHANGE.—At an adjourned meeting of the Mechanics' and Manufacturers' Exchange, held at Greenwood Hall last evening, the following persons were added to the list of members, viz: Central Insurance Company, I. Bruce, James Pollock, W. B. Bisby, J. Bogart, James Duulap & Co., Johnston, Morton & Co., Joseph Foster & Co., R. M. White, John K. Green, L. Swartz, R. Bannon, M. Finegan, William Thomas, J. H. Kelly, William Dunn, John Kean, Stewart & Lappe, and Miles Greenwood.

The meeting was well attended, and the best of feeling prevailed. Speeches were made by A. B. Latta, G. W. Runyan, and others, which were listened to with marked interest by the audience.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COUNTY COMMISSIONans .- At their session yesterday, the County Commissioners passed a resolution to meet, at their request, the Commissioners of Warren and Clermont counties, at Loveland, on Wednesday, to-day, to consult with them in regard to a bridge, to be built across the Little Miami, at that place.

A petition was received from E. C. Walden, praying the construction of a bridge, or oulvert, over the West and Middle Forks of Pleasant Run, in the county-road leading from Cincinnati, Hamilton and Mt. Pleasant Turnpike-road to Springdale, and referred to the County Civil Engineer, with instructions to re-

A CONSTABLE OUTRAGED .- Elsa Hill, a constable of the Seventeenth Ward, a few days ago became intoxicated, and was arrested and lodged in the Station-house, where he was-as drunken men are apt to be-a little noisy. Yesterday morning he was handcuffed to a negro, and taken to the Police Court; where, upon a charge of disorderly conduct, he was fined $5, and for abusing officers sent to City Prison ten days. Mr. Hill, we have been informed, is very quiet when sober, and was well known to those who arrested him, and under the circumstances the penalty seems far more heavy than just.

THE Ball of the American Legion, K. G. C., last night, at Melodeon Hall, passed off to the intense satisfaction of all who were present. Spencer C. Reeves "discoursed most eloquent music," to which the gallants and rose-lipped girls together danced away the dreamy hours until they whispered of the morn; and then, weary with pleasure, the gentle votaries of Terpsichore retired, their bosoms in voluptuous heavings keeping time to the memory of the music and their joy.

ACCIDENT ON SECOND STREET .- At a machine shop on Second street a young man named Harley a few days ago lost his left arm, which, being caught in some of the machinery, was torn completely off, and besides this he was injured otherwise quite seriously.

According to Liebig, these globules attract oxygen from the sar, and combustion of the carbonaceous particles of the blood ensues, evolving animal heat or vitality; it follows, therefore, if they were deficient, vitality would be defective.

its correctness, the obvious inference is, that in Consumption, and all other diseases of Chronic debility or defective vitality, if the globules or hematosin are deficient, (and analyses of the blood in these diseases show that it is so,) the rational mode of treatment is to increase their quantity in the blood.

Now, the analyses of these globules (or red blood) show that they are composed of iron, sulphur and phosphorus. He has, consequently, spent several years of study in compounding a preparation of these elements to meet the object required, and now confidently offers his "Hematogenic Sirup" to the public, as the best preparation now extant for renovating the blood, increasing the strength, and aiding nature to free herself from disease.
